Harvard Baseball Schedule Announced

Syracuse and U. of P. Appear on the Crimson's Programme for First Time in Several Seasons—Princeton Cut Down to One Game.

Cambridge, Mass., Dec. 19.—The University of Pennsylvania and Syracuse appear on the Harvard 1911 baseball schedule for the first time in several seasons, while Princeton is cut down to one game. The Crimson are doing the omitted through the failure to secure a mutually agreeable date. There are several open dates for which Columbia, Wesleyan, Springfield Training school and Colby college are negotiating.

The team will go to Annapolis April 16 on its spring training trip and the following day go to Washington for one or more games.

The regular schedule is as follows, the games being played at Cambridge unless otherwise specified: April 25, Trinity; April 27, University of Maine; April 29, open; May 2, Bates; May 4, Bowdoin; May 6, University of Vermont; May 10, Amherst; May 12, Brown; May 17, Harvard; May 20, Princeton; April 27, Worcester; May 20, Andover at Andover; June 3, Dartmouth; June 7, University of Pennsylvania; June 10, Brown at Providence; June 14, Holy Cross; June 17, Williams.

Dated for the Yale game have not yet been determined.

CAPTAIN PITCHER'S TEAM WON.

Match Game at Rose Alley Won by Genial Druggist.

There was a match game Monday evening at the Rose alleys between two teams from Greeneville captained by "Bill" Pitcher and "Master Willie" Hastings. The game resulted in a victory for the team captained by the genial druggist. The following is the final score and the scores:

Pitcher	110	95	200
Pitcher	102	101	203
Sheehan	74	95	168
H. McCafferty	103	90	193
	363	362	1181

At the Rose alleys two teams rolled off on Monday in the trials of the two-men tournament, with the following scores: Hill and Combie 661, Combie and Stewart 655.

Sturtevant won high single at the Rose alleys on Monday with a score of 137.

A Right-hand Punch Decided the Match.

Memphis, Tenn., Dec. 19.—Johnny Conner, claimant of the bartenders' championship of the world, disposed of Earl Denning of Chicago in five rounds tonight before the National Athletic club. A right-hand punch to the jaw brought Denning to the mat and Conner got the decision.

Purchases and Releases Announced.

Chicago, Dec. 19.—B. B. Johnson of the American baseball league today announced the purchase of H. Hart by the Chicago team. The signing of a contract by T. Maddon with Boston, the release of J. J. Clark by Cleveland to St. Louis and the release of A. Griggs by St. Louis to Cleveland.

Won by a Nose.

Oakland, Calif., Dec. 19.—The sport at Emeryville was marked by close finishes today. In the third event Pavluska gained a nose victory over Jest, the favorite. Arasee ruled first choice for the mile event and after fighting it was second.

Regarding Griffiths' Deal.

A majority of well-posted baseball men are of the opinion that Griffith out with Jim Gaffney in the final sixteen outgamed him, winning by a nose. Weather nine.

AN EVENING OF RARE SPORT.

Championship Match Between Bob Sommerville and Young Gotch on Wednesday.

Wednesday evening's carnival of sport at the Windham Athletic club promises to be one of the best betting cards of the season. In addition to the championship match between Bob Sommerville of Boston and Young Gotch of this city to a finish for a side pot of $100, there is to be the innovation of a women's amateur match between the best woman amateur artists of the country from Boston and any local wrestler or, in the event of such a man getting cold feet, the woman will wrestle an exhibition with Bob Sommerville. Another good preliminary is also scheduled, and an evening of rare sport is assured. Sommerville has had a feeling that he should have won against Young Gotch when the two met recently in the Loewer opera house, but Gotch is determined to turn the trick again.

Baseball Managers Are Casting Anxious Eyes on Fletcher.

McGraw has one young player upon whom all managers are casting eyes. He is Fletcher, the Giants' substitute shortstop. But it isn't likely that the Giants' manager will part with this youngster unless he gets something good in return. It is well known fact that McGraw has been after Outfielder Wilson of the Pittsburgh club for some time. Pittsburg wants pitchers and McGraw's surplus in the hurling department is not the kind Manager Clarke of the Pittsburgh wants—Brooklyn Citizen.

Orn Morningstar Beaten Twice by Young Schaefer.

Rochester, N. Y., Dec. 19.—Orn Morningstar, to whom Jack Schaefer, the wizard of billiards, looked for the education of his son, Jake, Jr., was today beaten twice by young Schaefer. Morningstar played 499 to Schaefer's 500.

In the afternoon he made 382 to Schaefer's 399 and in the evening counted only 219 to Schaefer's 208.

Jim Barry and Tony Ross to Meet in Memphis.

New Orleans, Dec. 19.—It was announced today that Jim Barry and Tony Ross, whose scheduled bout here yesterday was called off on account of the decision of the authorities not to allow it to take place, would meet in Memphis next Monday night.

Polo Results Monday.

At Worcester: Worcester 3, New Haven 7.

At Fall River: New Bedford 1, Fall River 2.

At Brockton: Brockton 1, Hartford 5.

At Providence: Providence 5, Taunton 2.

Famous Baseball Manager Dead.

Newcastle, Pa., Dec. 19.—Michael Hannan, manager of the famous Neshannock baseball team of this city that in 1876 defeated all the baseball teams of the country, died at his home here today.

Regarding Griffiths' Deal.

A majority of well-posted baseball men are of the opinion that Griffith will 50 per cent. the better of the Pittsfield deal. A few believe that both clubs will be benefited. A New York sportsman observes that Griffith is being foisted in his stamp to be the best deal he can get. "Griffith was always giving something for nothing in New York," says this person, "and now when he comes to something that appears all in his favor, he can't get away with it."

PROCEEDS TO BENEFIT UNITED CHARITIES.

Harvard All-Stars' Football Game at Memphis to Help Good Cause.

The entire proceeds of the Harvard All-Stars' football game at Memphis, Dec. 20, will be given to the Harvard men to partially cover the expenses of the trip, will go to the United charities. They are getting together in the southland quite a formidable array of gridiron talent to oppose the All-Star combination. Dan McGowan, Vanderbilt's famous coach, has volunteered his services to help train the Harvard players upon the southern eleven, which will be made up almost entirely of those who played "varsity football" on gridiron south of the Mason-Dixon line during the season just closed.

HOCKEY COACH FOR DARTMOUTH.

Ray Vye Considered Exceptional Player—Will Meet Candidates in Boston.

Hanover, N. H., Dec. 19.—Graduate Manager George A. Graves has appointed Ray Vye from Montpelier, Vt., to be coach of Dartmouth's varsity hockey team for this season. Vye is himself one of those phenomenal players that Canada is noted for, and he comes to Dartmouth with a two-fold reputation, for he has shown his training and coaching ability in the past few years as the coach of the Amherst key team. Up to now the Dartmouth skaters have been in charge of Captain Vye, but he has been taken over by the new coach upon their arrival at Boston during the Christmas holidays. There they will practice at the arena and play several games and Mr. Vye will assume control.

Boston Post Names Best Baseball Players for All Time.

All-star teams are getting to be the fashion. The Boston Post has come out with an all-American baseball nine for all time. It is made up as follows:

Pitchers—Christy Mathewson, New York Giants; Ed Walsh, Chicago White Sox; Jesse Tannehill, last of Washington; "Old Cy" Young, of Cleveland; John Clarkson, last of Cleveland, and Charley Nichols, once of Boston and the Giants.

Outfielders—Mike ("King") Kelly, purchased by Boston in 1887 for $16,000; Charley Bennett, once of Detroit and Boston; and Martin Bergen, not of Brooklyn, who committed suicide in 1896.

Infielders—Fred Tenney, last of the Giants; first base, Larry Lajoie, of Cleveland; second base, Herman Long of Boston; third base, with the Yankees and Detroit; shortstop, Jimmy Collins, manager of the Providence club last year, third base.

Catchers—Hugh Duffy, manager of the White Sox last year, left field; Chick Stahl, Boston Red Sox, now dead, center field; Ty Cobb of Detroit, right field.

H. C. BINGHAM DEAD.

Well Known Horseman of West Hartford Dies at Age of 62 Years.

Local horsemen will note with regret the death of Herbert C. Bingham, 62, the well-known horseman who died recently at his home on the Steele road in West Hartford, after five weeks' illness of a complication of diseases. He acted as judge in many races on the track around Hartford and on the track of the old Gentlemen's Driving club on Albany avenue. He was indefatigable in his attention to the trotting horse and at meets at Charter Oak park he could always be found clocking the fast ones. Mr. Bingham was born in Windham. He leaves behind his widow, two brothers, Wallace R. and George, both of New York.

ZYSBSZKO VS. DR. ROLLER.

Polish Wrestler Forced to Adopt the Defensive Half the Time.

Dr. B. F. Roller, who gave up a successful medical career to pursue professional athletics, is coming to Norwalk to meet Jack McGrath, the Irish giant.

Zysbszko recently met Roller in a handicap match in which he under- took to throw the American in thirty minutes. He was unable to accomplish this, but on the contrary, was on the defensive half of the time.

Dr. Roller is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, where he won fame as captain of the football team, and also in track and field athletics. He stands six feet and weighs 215 pounds.

ALL AMERICAN ELEVEN.

Walter Camp's Choice Has Several Surprises.

Walter Camp's All-American eleven has several surprises. For one thing his selection of three wrestlers and one three Harvard men will cause a lot of comment, as well as the choice of the man in his back field. The Camp team emphasizes the fact that the revised code made selections difficult. As to individuals, the discussion over the comparative merits of several of the men who have been most frequently awarded to the second team should be keen enough to prove that Mr. Camp has good grounds for his choice.

Attempting to Secure Hockey Jurisdiction.

Attempts of the Western Skating association to secure for hockey the jurisdiction of the International Skating union of America and the Amateur Athletic Union have met with failure. The heads of the other associations disapprove because they feel that there is no governing body which can control it. Therefore the Western association will assume local control as it deems advisable for local contests.

McGowen regarded the battle as the roughest joke on earth. He told me body that poor lumbering McCormick would never hit him. You see," said McCoy, "this fellow does nothing but swing. His fist only travels so far, and in an unvarying circle, always the same. I could not find a right hook to hit him, and he never missed."

A big crowd came to see the massacre, and McCoy, smiling in his usual chuffed and assured in his usual way, McCormick looked up at the manager.

"For three years the faculty has done me a great service," he said. "They have been good to me."

"Why not let me on with the big McCormick?" You can get him cheap, he won't bother me any, and you can draw the limit of your seating capacity."

"McCormick, figuring that he had nothing to lose and needing the coin, gladly agreed to meet the terrible McCoy, and the two combatants arranged the match according to rules, requiring that this was so soft he would not need to do no fixing. McCoy did not insist on his adversary dropping him—a precaution which I regret to say many champions usually adopt. What? Me? Why, the ideal. I was different, you know."

The promoters had to pay Mr. McCormick extra for his fist.
